

Please do not change the current wisconsin "no call" law.
weakening the current level defeats the purpose of having the law.
Once allowmments are made, it will only take time before the original idea is gone. This would not be in the best interest of the public.